Gompers Calls A. F. L. Legions for Gathering in Washington February 23.

MORRISON PLANS 'EXPOSE'

Seeks Plot for Cheap Labor and Continuance of Profiteering.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Representatives of the 109 national and international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor have begun called to meet in Washington February 23, "for the purpose of considering attacks now being made on the trade union movement," Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation, said today. The call was sent out by Samuel Gompers, federation president.

Secretary Morrison, who embodied his announcement in a formal statement, said that the forthcoming conference "is one of several similar gatherings that have been called by the American Federation of Labor during its history to consider unusual conditions." In explaining further the intention of organized labor to give attention to attacks on the trade union movement, Mr. Morrison said:

"The attacks include attempts to establish the anti-union shop, wage reductions, anti-strike laws, compulsory arbitration, labor injunctions and a publicity that would mold the public mind to accept these backward steps.

"I believe labor will formulate a plan to expose the pretence of men who are only interested in cheap labor and a continuance of their profiteering policy. The trade union movement is alert to the forces against it and proposes to act vigorously and courageously. Our opponents are mistaken if they imagine they have made the slightest progress in alarming the workers, or that they will humbly accept a policy of reaction.

"The proposed conference will consider the publicity and other methods of our opponents and it is quite possible that labor will launch an offensive movement against those who imagine they control practically every avenue of publicity."

PHILADELPHIA UNION FIGHTS LOWER SCALE

Textile Workers Call on Public to Aid Them.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16.—The Philadelphia district council of textile workers at a meeting here today decided to resist "to the limit of their ability" any wage scale reductions, and called on the people of Philadelphia to support them in their struggle "for fair play and for a chance to live as citizens of a great American city should live."

Most of the textile manufacturers recently announced wage reductions ranging from 10 to 25 per cent, and told the men they either would have to submit to them or be thrown out of work by the closing of the plants.

Fourteen local unions, with a membership of approximately 20,000, were represented at the council meeting today. Adoption of resolutions setting forth their attitude followed the reading of a detailed report in which statistics and memoranda were quoted to show that the average workman in the textile industry is at present receiving a salary "far below the amount needed to sustain in decency a family, while the manufacturer has reaped for the last five years exorbitant profits."

"Conclusive evidence," the resolutions read, "show that the textile manufacturing concerns in Philadelphia have made profits since 1914 which are grossly exorbitant. Such profits have furnished ample opportunity for the mill owners to create adequate financial reserves.

"During the same period the workers in the textile mills were denied any share of this prosperity and received wages utterly inadequate to support them in health and decency."

CLOTHING WORKERS OPEN LABOR COLLEGE

Stores Started Also to Feed Locked Out Members.

For the relief and enlightenment of its "locked out" members in New York, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America will open today its commissary system and a "labor college." The school for members who want to learn while they are idle will be at 205 East Tenth street. Five stores will be opened at first, their locations being at 10 Cook street and 377 Blake avenue, Brooklyn; 24 Attorney street and 278 East Tenth street, Manhattan, and one store in Newark, N. J.

The stores will be open six days a week, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Sales will be by cash coupons, which will be sold to members of the union on such a basis that their purchasing power will be considerably greater than money spent in ordinary stores. Members who cannot afford to buy the coupons will receive them free.

The clothing workers issued a statement yesterday in which they declared that "the seventh week of the lockout of Amalgamated workers finds the New York manufacturers isolated and discredited."

"They are discredited even in the National Association of Clothing Manufacturers," the statement adds, "while the Amalgamated is rolling up its $1,000,000 relief fund, opening stores for the sale and distribution of groceries and supplies to members, opening a labor college so that the members may occupy their enforced leisure profitably, and maintaining most satisfactory relations with practically all manufacturers outside of the New York market."

DEMAND REDS FREE OFFICER OR FACE WAR

Alabama Legionnaires Ask President to Act.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 16.—President Wilson has been requested by the Alabama Division of the American Legion to procure the release of Capt. Russell Kilpatrick, native Alabamian, who is held in prison by the Bolsheviks, even should it require the sending of an American army into Russia.

Resolutions adopted by the executive committee and made public today by Col. Bibb Graves, commanding officer of the unit in which Capt. Kilpatrick served during the world war, ask the President to "send 10,000,000 of us over there if necessary to obtain the liberty of this American soldier who is being unlawfully detained."

7 ALABAMA GUARDSMEN ARRESTED AS LYNCHERS

Accused by Private in the Shooting by Masked Band of a Coal Miner Held in Jail for the Murder of a Member of Their Company on Strike Duty.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 16.—Four non-commissioned officers and three privates of Company M, Alabama National Guard, were arrested to-night and placed in the Jefferson county jail here in connection with the lynching last Thursday at Jasper, Ala., of William Baird, a coal miner.

Arrest of the guardsmen followed testimony before Judge Horace C. Wilkinson, special investigator, by a private of Company M. Neither the nature of the guardsman's statement nor his identity was revealed.

Every member of Company M, which at the time of the lynching was stationed at Towerley, near Jasper, in connection with the strike of Alabama coal miners, was questioned closely to-day by the investigating officers. Civilians living in the neighborhood where the lynching took place also were examined by the officers.

The seven guardsmen arrested to-night will be sent to Jasper to-morrow to appear before the coroner, who is investigating the death of Baird. The coal miner when taken from the jail by masked men last Thursday was being held in connection with the fatal shooting December 23 of James Morris, a private of Company M.

EX-SHERIFF IS NEAR DEATH IN MINE TOWN

Unidentified Man Tries to Shoot Him, but Misses When Attacked

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Jan. 16.—An unsuccessful attempt to assassinate G. T. Blankenship, former Sheriff of Mingo county, was made at Bluefield to-day at noon, when an unidentified man pushed his way to the former Sheriff's side and leveled a pistol at him. Blankenship struck his assailant's arm just as the gun was discharged. The shot missed him, but the former officer's face was badly cut by the barrel of the weapon.

The attack occurred at the Norfolk and Western Railway station just as Blankenship was to board a train for Matewan. In the confusion which followed Blankenship's assailant escaped. Blankenship's term of office as Sheriff of Mingo county expired January 1.

Military law, proclaimed November 25 last, after Mingo county had been declared in a state of "insurrection" by Gov. Cornwell, will be lifted to-morrow. Col. Herman Hall, commanding the Federal troops here, said to-night. The statement was made along with the announcement that Company I, stationed at Borderland, in the heart of the coal strike district, would entrain for Camp Sherman at the same time. The work of the troops will be taken over by the State police.

"Any Luck"

is the salutation and query of one fishing-boat to another, hailing each other as they pass.

There is a lot of good nature in the world, as well as information, that can be brought out by a smile and cheery word as we pass along.

Just try it and see for yourselves. Some men, who can make fine public speeches from a forum desk, a pulpit or platform, are so offhand in a public performance that in private they lose the benefit of the charm they wore in the large assemblage by a brilliant address.

If men were to get nearer to each other and practise good fellowship even moderately this would be a happier world to live in. It would not cost much to try it.
